Promises and Prayers from Scripture for Guidance and Direction

Study Time Suggestions for This Series –

PREPARING YOURSELF – Find a quiet place where you can listen to the Lord Jesus without distractions or interruptions. Have your Bible and paper and pen, along with your study guide, ready. You may want to have more than one translation or paraphrase of the Bible for additional insight and clarity. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your thoughts and to make His truth known to you as you read the Word of God.

READING – There will be several Scripture verses for you to ponder as you begin your study. Each of them begin with the words, "Let us . . .". They are the instructions that the writer is giving to the young believers as they seek to learn what it means to follow and obey Jesus. If you can, read each verse several times, using various translations if possible.

REFLECTING - Ask yourself the following questions as you read the context of these verses. Write down your thoughts, observations, and insights below each of them.

1. Why did the writer give these instructions?
2. What does He mean by them? Try to put the verses into your own words.
3. What will be the result of following these instructions? Are there benefits or rewards?
4. Is there any specific motivation that is given to encourage an individual to action?

RESPONDING – What do you think that the Holy Spirit is prompting you to consider personally? There are suggestions in each study guide to assist you. Don't miss out on the blessing and opportunity to not only respond personally, but to receive and give encouragement to others.

ARE YOU HEADED IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION?

"Let us . . ." – Discovering how to live out your faith

Lesson 1 – Which Way is the Best Way?

Paul wrote to those who belong to Christ Jesus:

*"I want you to understand what really matters,
so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return.
May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation – the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ – for this will bring much glory and praise to God.*

Philippians 1: 10 – 11

Before you open up your Bible, spend some minutes in worship and praise.

Can you re-write the opening verse as your own prayer to The One who gave His life so that you could be forgiven and reconciled to God?

READ - Take time to read these verses in at least 2 translations and then write down the directions that are given.

Romans 13: 12

Romans 13: 13 – 14

Romans 14: 13

Romans 14: 19

Romans 15: 2

II Corinthians 7:1

REFLECT – As you ponder these passages of Scripture, consider why Paul is giving these specific instructions. How would following these directions to create Jesus' character in your heart and mind and bring glory to the Lord Jesus?

1. Read Romans 13: 8 – 14
2. Read Romans 14: 8 – 22
3. Read Romans 15: 1 – 6
4. Read II Corinthians 6: 14 – 7: 1

RESPOND –

1. As you look back at the "GPS" given in Romans and II Corinthians, how carefully are you following each of these directions? Is there any place where you might need to change your attitude, behavior or choices in order to avoid some hazardous experiences or useless detours? Would you say you are headed in the right direction? Why or why not? (Be careful that you do not use other people as your measuring stick.)
2. As you take time to quietly listen for the voice of the Lord, what do you hear Him saying to you? Focus on just 1 or 2 of these verses and let the Spirit of God direct your thoughts, asking Him to show you the path that would be best for you to take. How could you modify or change your route so that you are going in the best direction?
3. Just as it is helpful to have someone else with you to assist you in reading the map, so it is in our spiritual journey. Who can you encourage along the way? Who is a trusted friend that will talk with you about your strengths and your weaknesses and will pray for you? If no one comes to mind, ask God to show you someone and then you'll have to take some risks!

Lesson 2 – WITH WHOM ARE YOU TRAVELING?

Paul wrote to his brothers in Christ:

"Now may the God of peace make you holy in every way and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless until our Lord Jesus comes again.

God will make this happen, for He who calls you is faithful." I Thessalonians 5: 23

Before you open up your Bible, spend some minutes in worship and praise.

What is prayer of your own heart as you read this verse? Talk with the Lord Jesus about your concerns and desires.

1. Read Galatians 5: 19 – 26
2. Read Galatians 6: 7 – 10
3. Read I Thessalonians 5: 1 – 11

RESPOND

Which ones might be particularly important for you to consider at this point in your spiritual journey? Have you veered off course in any way?
2. As you take time to listen to the still, soft voice of the Lord, what do you hear Him saying to you? What do you think He might be prompting you to consider more intentionally, paying attention to what would please Him and bring glory to His name?
3. Who is helping you to stay on the right road, to keep moving on, and to focus on your destination at this time in your life? Who are you encouraging and praying for and with so that they keep going in the best direction? What a blessing it is when God gives us "traveling companions".

Lesson 3 – Are You Willing to Take a Risk?

*I pray that from His glorious, unlimited resources God will empower you with inner strength through His Spirit.
Then Christ will make His home in your hearts as you trust in Him.
Your roots will grow down into God's love and keep you strong.*

Ephesians 3: 16 - 17

2. Hebrews 4: 12 - 16
3. Hebrews 10: 19 - 25

Bonus – What are some of the new directions from this week's study that can be added to your list?

RESPOND

1. As you reread each of these instructions written to the author's brothers and sisters in Christ, how do you measure up? Would you say that you are "traveling in the right direction" or do some adjustments or corrections need to be made?
2. God's often gently whispers our name and longs to show us new paths which He wants us to be willing to take – even when we cannot see around the corner or the light at the end of the tunnel. Are you willing to take His hand and follow Him? He is waiting for you to make the choice.
3. As you consider God's leading for you, why not ask a friend to pray with you and for you along this unknown journey. As you share, perhaps you can do the same thing for your friend. When you go together with Jesus as your leader, It's a great way to go.

2. Are there one or two of these verses that have particularly caused you to pause and to think about your own attitudes and actions? HYMNS for Meditation and Worship

HE LEADETH ME

He leadeth me! O blessed thought. O words with heavenly comfort fraught!
Whate'er I do, where'er I be, still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me.

Lord, I would clasp Thy hand in mine, Nor ever murmur nor repine,
Content, whatever lot I see, since 'tis Thy hand that leadeth me!

And when my task on earth is done, When, by Thy grace, the victory's won.
E'en death's cold wave I will not flee, since God thru' Jordan leadeth me.

Chorus: He leadeth me, He leadeth me, By His own hand He leadeth me.
His faithful follower I would be, For by His hand He leadeth me.

SAVIOR, LIKE A SHEPHERD LEAD US

Savior, like a shepherd lead us. Much we need Thy tender care.
In Thy pleasant pastures feed us. For our use Thy folds prepare.
Blessed Jesus, blessed Jesus, Thou hast bought us, Thine we are.

We are Thine; do thou befriend us. Be the Guardian of our way
Keep Thy flock, from sin defend us. Seek us when we go astray.
Blessed Jesus, blessed Jesus, hear, O hear us when we pray.

ALL THE WAY MY SAVIOR LEADS ME

All the way my Savior leads me. What have I to ask beside? Can I doubt His tender mercy, Who thru' life has been my guide?
Heavenly peace, divinest comfort, here by faith in Him to dwell. For I know whate'er befall me, Jesus doeth all things well.
All the way my Savior leads me. Cheers each winding path I tread. Gives me grace for every trial. Feeds me with the living bread.
Tho' my weary steps may falter and my soul athirst may be. Gushing from the Rock before me, lo! A spring of joy I see.

MAKE ME A BLESSING

Out in the highways and byways of life, many are weary and sad. Carry the sunshine where darkness is rife, making the sorrowing glad.

Tell the sweet story of Christ and His love. Tell of His power to forgive. Others will trust Him if only you prove true, every moment you live.

Give as 'twas given to you in your need. Love as the Master loved you. Be to the helpless a helper indeed. Unto your mission be true.

Chorus: Make me a blessing, make me a blessing. Out of my life may Jesus shine.
Make me a blessing, O Savior, I pray. Make me a blessing to someone to day.

I'LL GO WHERE YOU WANT ME TO GO, DEAR LORD

It may not be on the mountain's height or over the stormy sea. It may not be at the battle's front My Lord will have need of me.
But, if by a still small voice He calls to paths I do not know, I'll answer, dear Lord, with my hand in Thine. I'll go where You want me to go.

Perhaps today there are loving words which Jesus would have me speak. There may be now, in the paths of sin, some wand'rer whom I should seek.

O Savior, if Thou wilt be my Guide, tho' dark and rugged the way, my voice shall echo the message sweet, I'll say what You want me to say.

Chorus: I'll go where you want me to go, dear Lord. O'er mountain or plain or sea.
I'll say what you want me to say, dear Lord. I'll be what You want me to be.

MAY THE MIND OF CHRIST, MY SAVIOR

May the mind of Christ, my Savior, live in me from day to day, by His love and power controlling all I do and say.

May the Word of God dwell richly in my heart from hour to hour, so that all may see I triumph only through His power.

May the love of Jesus fill me as the waters fill the sea, Him exalting, self abasing, this is victory.

May I run the race before me strong and brave to face the foe, looking only unto Jesus as I onward go.

May His beauty rest upon me as I seek the lost to win. And may they forget the channel, seeing only Him.
